

BRILLHEAR FACES BRAVES TODAY IN SIXTH GAME OF SERIES

YOUTHFUL TWIRLER GETS FIRST CHANCE AGAINST 'BIG TEAM'

Courtney's Wildness Gives Regulars 8-4 Win Over Yanigans.

By RAY HELGESEN.
TAMPA, Fla., March 29.—Brillheart, the Nationals' 17-year-old southpaw, will get his first chance against a major league outfit tomorrow in St. Petersburg, when he is scheduled to face the Boston Braves in the sixth game of the spring series. Brillheart has shown much form in practice that Milan has decided to get a look at the kid under fire and for that reason the youngster will start tomorrow's fray.

Milan has not yet decided how many innings to let the kid portend. Brillheart is in better shape than any other hurler on the squad and the Linden Flyer is half inclined to let him go the route, always providing that the Braves don't show too much fondness for his offerings.

Dangerous Dan McGraw and Erick Erickson will also be taken along tomorrow. McGraw will follow Brillheart if he finally decides to let the youngster work only part of the game, and Erick is being carted to the Sunshine City for use in an emergency.

The Yanigans beat another chance to beat the Regulars this morning when the veterans were returned the victors in a seven-inning game by an 8-to-4 score. The wildness of Courtney prevailed over the kids from at least being the score. "Anders" Arry was checked for only five hits in the seven innings, but he was so wild the vets couldn't get near his arm. He walked nine men, ridded his system of a balk and erred twice.

Woodward and Francis hurried for the Regulars and together were checked for eight hits. Woodward allowed five and gave four bases on balls, but he balanced his wildness by whiffing a half dozen of the youngsters.

Courtney had Gossin, who made such a splash yesterday with five hits, absolutely helpless. Gossin didn't get anything that even resembled a bingle. Furthermore, despite the fact that the "official" scorer was nice to him and no errors were chalked against him, he looked bad in the field. Twice he stumbled and fell in trying to field balls which he couldn't handle. He walked three times, but he was so wild he was credited with a triple on what should have been at the most a single.

Francis Walloped.
The Yanigans crashed three solid hits off Francis in their half of the seventh and tied the score at four all. LaMotte doubled along the left-field foul line. Brower singled to right. LaMotte scoring. Gossin flew to Gossin and Bluege hit to left. Brower moving to second. Francis struck hit. Gossin, hitting the bases. Gossin drove in. Hitting and Francis ran into Bucky and was touched out. Harris completing a double play by throwing to Judge.

Beck started the Regs' seventh by flying to Gossin. Milan walked. Beck stole second. Rice also walked. Gossin drove to Lightfoot, who ran Milan down between second and third, thereby showing his minor league value. Beck advanced. The kid was touched third for a force out. Harris doubled to center. Rice and Gossin scoring. Shanks tripled to left. Harris springing and Hank following him in when Lightfoot missed. Smith's return throw. Milan then called the game, evidently figuring that Courtney had taken a healthy enough beating for one day.

Miller, Eddie Digges, Turk, Keifer and Danny Noone will leave here Saturday night and go direct to Washington, instead of making the return trip with the club. Milan said today. The Nationals only have accommodations for forty persons on the trip North, and Milan, therefore, is forced to send some of the squad home early. He picked those who he thought would be the best to put at American League Park until the squad's arrival in Washington a week from Saturday. Johnson was in charge of the early squad.

WILLIE HOPPE FAILS IN EFFORT TO WIN CUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Veteran Defeated by Youthful Title-Holder, 1,500 to 1,469.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Jake Schaefer, the young billiard marvel, retained his 163 ballline championship here tonight when he defeated Willie Hoppe, challenger, in one of the most exciting matches ever seen in championship play.

The score was 1,500 to 1,469, probably the closest score ever registered in a match of this importance. The end of the three night series was replete with thrills for the immense crowd that filled the big hall. With only 10 points to go to retain his championship, Schaefer, plainly showing the strain of the match, missed the final ball.

Hoppe had only 46 points to go and the balls were in perfect alignment for an easy run. The veteran, always calm, was slow in starting, and his first three attempts netted him only 10 markers.

The title at stake, the great crowd and the applause seemed to affect them both. Schaefer missed completely in his ninth, tenth and eleventh tries. But Jake fowed this exhibition with a beautiful showing of rail play and scored 213, the high run of the night.

Hoppe scored 17 points more than Schaefer on the night's play, but the handicap of 48 from the first two blocks proved sufficient for Schaefer to defeat him.

Schaefer will play Cochran, the next challenger, within thirty days. The score: Schaefer—59, 107, 2, 22, 20, 2, 23, 4, 0, 0, 0, 213, 25, 2, 10—506. Hoppe—4, 3, 1, 25, 69, 0, 52, 1, 111, 0, 44, 54, 44, 13—517.

BABE'S HOMER FAILS TO WIN FOR YANKS

GALVESTON, Tex., March 29.—The Brooklyn Robins evened their score with the Yankees this afternoon, defeating them 4 to 3 in the eighth inning.

The Yankees' only run was a homer by Babe Ruth after two were out in the first inning. The Babe's circuit drive was made on a count of three and two after Jimmy Paul Sentele had missed what appeared to be a perfect third strike on the Bambino.

Neither club scored thereafter until the sixth, in which an infield hit by Bert Griffith and wild throw by Frank Baker and Aaron Ward enabled the Robins to tie the count. In reaching for Baker's peg on Nellie's ground in the eighth, Willie Pipp was spiked in his left hand and forced to quit the game. Score: New York..... 100 000 000—1 6 2 Brooklyn..... 001 000 100—3 1 Batteries—Maya, Jolley and Schang; Smith, Mammoux and Hungling, Taylor.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 29.—The preliminary boxing bouts of the South Atlantic Association annual ring championship, held tonight at the Central Y. M. C. A., were productive of spirited milling. Camp Holabird's six artists won three bouts; Central Y came out ahead in two, while the Fifth Regiment A. A. For Howard, Washington Y and Doyle A. C. each had one victory to their credit.

No bouts were fought in the 118-pound, 135-pound and heavyweight divisions, as the finals on Saturday will find the Central Y represented by six of their men; Camp Holabird, 4; Fifth Regiment A. A., 2; Washington Y, 1; Doyle A. C., 1; Vanguard Club, 1; and Fort Howard, 1.

Glenna Collett Wins at Pinehurst

Defeats Mrs. M. J. Scammell, 4 and 2, in Finals of North and South Open Tourney.

PINEHURST, N. C., March 29.—Miss Glenna Collett of the Metacomet Club, Providence, R. I., won the North and South women's golf championship today, defeating Mrs. M. J. Scammell of Uniontown, Pa., 4 and 2 in the final.

Miss Collett's ability to get greater distance on her shots was the determining factor in the match. She was hole-high in two of the par four holes and outdrove her opponents from the tee by 40 to 50 yards.

After losing the first with a badly played six, Miss Collett took the next five in one under even four. She halved the seventh and Mrs. Scammell won the next three in order, cutting the lead to one. Miss Collett then played par golf, however, running her advantage to three holes, with five to play.

The cards: Miss Collett..... 4 4 3 4 4 7 4 5—41 7 4 5 6 4 4 3 4—41—82 Mrs. Scammell..... 5 5 5 4 5 5 7 3—43 5 5 5 5 5 4 3 2—45—88

Middies Beat Bowdoin. ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 29.—Annapolis sailors managed to win from Bowdoin College of Brunswick, Me., in their opening baseball game of the season today, 7 to 6.

The game was marked by loose fielding by both teams, but Kelly, who was on the mound for the Middies, was given better support in the pinches.

Both teams hit the sphere freely. Walker twirled in good form for the Northerners, but was guilty of two miscues that helped the Naval lads.

CATHOLIC SWAMPS GALLAUDET, 15 TO 3

Brooklanders Use 19 Men in Outclassing Kendall Greeners—Driscoll Shows Well.

Catholic University opened its baseball season yesterday afternoon at Brookland by outclassing Gallaudet College in a practice game, 15 to 3.

It was not much of a test for the Brooklanders as the Kendall Greeners produced only the puniest kind of opposition. The game enabled Coach Moran to get a line on the majority of his most promising material and he took advantage of it by sending nineteen players into action, including four hurlers and a trio of receivers.

Of the pitchers, May, of last season's outfit, made the most impressive showing. He let down the Kendall Greeners without a hit before being sent to the bench after three innings' toil.

Coupled with the splendid work of the battery men was the smoothness shown by the inner guard with Driscoll, at first; Yeager, second; Denault, short, and Heiberger and McCarthy alternating at third. They played a bang-up defensive game.

Driscoll, at first, is one of the best looking baseball prospects ever developed at the Brookland institution. He played a flawless game at first, besides crashing out four hits. He made a triple, double and single, besides drawing a pass and sacrificing in his other trial at bat.

The game will put the Brooklanders on edge for their two games against the week-end at Norfolk Catholic U., 122 202 412—15 17 2 Gallaudet U., 600 000 111—3 5 8 Batteries—Boatwright, Lahn, Wallace and Rose; May, Jackson, Clark and Ducharme; Corwin, San Pedro and Kerrigan.

Calling 'Em Right In D. C. Sportdom

BY KEEN GAUGER.

PHILLY FLOOR MOGULS MEET. LIKE the confab of District basketball officials held Monday, the Philadelphia group of floor moguls will gather tonight to give the much-discussed rules an acid shower. Phil Lewis, president of the Quaker City Approved Board of Basketball Officials, has suggested a radical change in the foul-tossing department. He says the only remedy to the foul-shooting problem is to make the man committing the foul to try for the shot.

Lewis claims that foul-shooting in a basketball game is spectacular, but says the foul is used as a threat, and figures that the player committing an offense should be given a chance to redeem himself, in other words, make good.

REID SCHEDULED TO APPEAR AT COLUMBIA. ONE of the points of interest in Columbia's professional golf tournament next week will be the initial appearance in Washington of Wilfred Reid, the newly-appointed Indian Spring champion. Reid, who is not campaigning in the South with the rest of the members of the paid profession, will undoubtedly appear with his brethren in the Columbia event. Following this tournament Reid is scheduled to report at Indian Spring to assume his new duties.

BROWER LOSES CHANCE. FRANK BROWER, of the Nationals, will weep when he reads this. William H. Luden, millionaire cough drop manufacturer of Reading, has donated a silver baseball and bat of regulation size to the Reading International, to be awarded to the first player who drives the ball over the center field fence at home. Luden has also donated $700 in gold, to be awarded for home runs made in the Reading Park.

NEW LEAGUE FORMED. HARRY LACLAIR, a well-known figure in sandlot baseball, is whipping a league together for games on the Navy Yard diamond. Fifth and L streets southeast. He can be reached during the day by phoning Branch 57, Navy Card, or Lincoln 3650 after 5 p. m.

MAY PAY RING COMMISSIONERS. LAW makers of Maryland have been wrestling this week with measures pertaining to sport. After the defeat in the Senate of the bill radical change in the foul-tossing department, a measure was introduced to pay the members of the State Athletic Commission, which governs the ring game. If passed, the ring commissioners would be paid a salary of $1,200 and the chairman $1,500.

CENTRAL TO MEET WISCONSIN CREW

Negotiations Closed for Race Over Two-Mile Course on Potomac, June 2.

Negotiations were closed yesterday between Central High and St. John's Military Academy, of Delaware, Wis., for a crew race over a two-mile course on the Potomac River on Friday, June 2.

This will be the first time a Western prep crew has ever been sent East. It will be one of the longest trips ever made by scholastic oarsmen.

The date with the Wisconsin crew will be one of the most important on Central's schedule this season. The Blue and White oarsmen, numbering close to half a hundred, have been practicing in the Potomac for the past month and hope to at least equal the record established by the 1921 crew, which was recognized as one of the best in the scholastic ranks. At the close of the school term, the Mount Pleasant athletes continued their activities on the water, sporting the Potomac Boat Club's colors.

Colored League Prospers. THIS year's Colored Departmental League promises to be the biggest circuit numerically in sandlot baseball in the District. These ten branches of the government service will be represented: Treasury, Bureau of Engraving, Government Printing Office, Department of Commerce, Smithsonian Institution, War Department, Bureau of Accounts, (Navy), Census, Postoffice and Navy. Starting Monday, May 8, games will be played every week day on Diamond No. 8, Monument Lot, until the second week in September.

Managers and officials of the league will hold a meeting tonight at the home of George W. Freeman, president of the circuit, 1316 U Street. Other officers are William Frazer, vice president; Artie Brown, secretary, and William Smith, treasurer.

PITTSBURGH GRADUATES. PITTSBURGH, with a population of 588,343, is boasting of having more than 200 graduates of the sandlots in the District. The graduates are being recognized by the City Postoffice, Navy Yard and the Marine Barracks. LaClair extends an invitation to other teams to join the loop. He can be reached during the day by phoning Branch 57, Navy Card, or Lincoln 3650 after 5 p. m.

Joseph Brandt Expected To Shine at Bowie Track

George W. Foreman, the Washington turfman, is not the only owner who will campaign a string of thoroughbreds at Bowie, who believes that in his stable he has a 3-year-old who will develop into one of the 1922 turf sensations.

The Foreman stable connections have passed around the word that in Elemental they have another Man o' War or Morloch.

From the Crown stable's quarters now comes word that they are confidently expecting the 3-year-old Joseph Brandt to prove a revelation to Bowie patrons, while J. D. Richardson's establishment is putting great store in the speedy Timble.

Frank Farrington's Maryland Belle, one of the most popular racers to ever grace a Maryland track, is another of whom much is expected. Maryland Belle, a daughter of Zeus and Dorothy K, campaigned in no less than thirty events during the past season, winning two and finishing second and third eight times.

Players are requested to report: Grays, Grady, Garvan, Sutton, Egan, Sweeney, Howe, O'Connor, Collins, Becket, Parker and Pages.

Will Hold Olympics In Pershing Stadium

PARIS, March 29.—Despite the objections of the French Olympic committee and others to the holding of the 1924 Olympic games in the Pershing Stadium, built in a hurry for a special occasion by United States engineers, the Municipal Council of Paris has voted again to hold the games there. The Municipal Council's word is most important in this case, as the French government has no authority to appropriate money for the games and the entertainment of the athletes.
